Hutchens Elected to The Fellows of the American Bar Foundation

Terry Hutchens, the managing partner of The Law Firm of Hutchens, Senter & Britton, P.A., has been elected by his peers to The Fellows of the American Bar Foundation. An honorary organization of judges, attorneys, and legal scholars, the Fellows select members who have demonstrated outstanding dedication to the welfare of their community and to the highest principles of the legal profession.

Members are nominated by Fellows in their jurisdiction and elected by the Board of the American Bar Foundation. Membership in the Fellows is limited to one third of one percent of lawyers licensed to practice in each jurisdiction. Established in 1955, the Fellows support the research of the American Bar Foundation.

Hutchens concentrates his practice on creditors' rights, civil litigation, business law and real property. He is a frequent lecturer and writer on topics relating to mortgage-related issues and foreclosure law.

He earned his undergraduate degree at North Carolina State University, his M.B.A. from WFU Babcock Graduate School of Management, and his Juris Doctor from Wake Forest School of Law.
