Lonnie Player, Jr. Elected to the North Carolina State Bar Council

Lonnie Player, Jr. has been elected by the membership of the Cumberland County Bar to serve as a member of the Council of the North Carolina State Bar. His three-year term will begin January 1, 2010.

The Council is the governing body of the North Carolina State Bar, which regulates lawyers and the practice of law in North Carolina. Mr. Player will serve on the Bar's Grievance and Authorized Practice of Law Committees.

Player, a partner with The Law Firm of Hutchens, Senter & Britton, P.A. concentrates his practice in business litigation and collections. He received his undergraduate degree from Duke University, his Master of Arts degree from the University of Texas at Austin, and his Juris Doctor from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Mr. Player is a member of the North Carolina and American Bar Associations as well as the Commercial Law League of America and has served as President of the Cumberland County Bar Association (2006-07) and as a member of the North Carolina State Judicial Council (2006-present). In 2009, Mr. Player was named to the N.C. Super Lawyers list as a Rising Star in business litigation.
