Firm Receives 2009 Award of Excellence from USFN

The Law Firm of Hutchens, Senter & Britton, P.A., has been selected by USFN to receive a 2009 Award of Excellence.

USFN announced the 2009 Award of Excellence winners last month at the Annual Member Retreat. USFN President Rick Rothfuss presented the awards to representatives of the firms at a special ceremony.

Award recipients demonstrate their commitment to excellence by their active participation and leadership with USFN, as well as in other mortgage banking organizations, the legal profession, and through significant contributions to industry education, on-going staff development, client relations and community charitable contributions throughout the year.

USFN is a national not-for-profit association of select attorneys, trustee companies and associates providing comprehensive default services to the mortgage banking industry.
